Classroom Procedure:

The first 1 1/2 - 2 hours of class will always be devoted to lecture. The remaining class time will be reserved for students to work on course related assignments. Students are encouraged to make optimum use of this time, as your instructor will be readily available to answer any questions you might have. The only exceptions to this schedule may be on exam or quiz nights. Only students with excused absences will be allowed to take make-up exams. Make-ups should be taken no later than one week after the exam date. Students will complete a class term research project, due on the last night of class. This will consist of a paper approximately 5 - 6 pages in length. Students should be prepared to give a short oral report about their project during the last class meeting. More information about the project will be provided the first night of class.

Academic Integrity:

The Doane Academic Integrity Policy will be adhered to in this class. All assignments and exams/quizzes will represent your own work. Any use of others' ideas and words without proper citation of sources is plagiarism and could result in the loss of all points for that particular assignment or exam.

Use of Personal Technology During Class:

Please restrict your use of cell phones to outside of class time. The use of PDAs, Laptop Computers and any personal audio/visual devices are generally prohibited during class time unless approved by your instructor.

Students with Disabilities/Reasonable Accommodations:

Doane seeks to maintain a supportive academic environment for students with disabilities. To ensure your equal access to all educational programs, activities and services, federal law requires students with disabilities notify the college, provide documentation, and request reasonable accommodations. If you need accommodations in this course, please notify your instructor immediately so that the required documentation is filed, and that your accommodation plan is in place.

Note: The schedule outlined in this syllabus is tentative. All efforts will be made to adhere to it as closely as possible. However, your instructor reserves the right to make any changes to the schedule as needed.
