CMS 210 Public Speaking fulfills the requirement for a Foundational Area of Knowledge in Rhetorical Communication. Any course that fulfills that requirement will assure that students will use language purposely and effectively to become more thoughtful communicators, more keenly aware of what they are doing and why in each phase of the communication process.

Learning Outcomes - Students will work to:
- analyze rhetorical context (purpose, audience, genre) and operate accordingly in oral and/or written communication
- support a clear argument with appropriate evidence and analysis in a focused and organized way
- understand effective communication as a process that involves reasoned decision making and multiple steps including planning, invention, drafting, feedback, revision, and editing

Course Description: A course focusing on the development of effective public speaking skills. Students completing this course will understand and be able to apply public speaking knowledge, including audience analysis, exigency analysis, research and critical analysis of content, organization of content in appropriate formats, presentation skills and the linguistic requirements of effective public speaking. These skills will be demonstrated through several speech presentations, including informative, persuasive, interpretive and other styles.

Fulfills Oral Communication requirement in the Doane Plan.

Instructor: Kevin J. Mattran  (402) 489-6582 (Home)
(402) 560-4001 (Cell/Text)
kevin.mattran@doane.edu

While the main focus of this course will be formal speech presentations, there will be valuable class discussion. Your attendance and participation is welcome and expected.

ISBN 0077306295

Course Objectives Specific to This Course: Students who satisfactorily complete this course will:
- Understand the importance and power of being able to speak publicly.
- Develop strategies for dealing with nervousness and stage fright.
- Begin to learn how to analyze and adapt to an audience.
- Learn how to research, present and support your opinion in a speech.
- Learn how to best organize information for clear understanding.
Explore the differences between public speaking and interpersonal conversation.
Relate the work done in class to their professional goals and ambitions.
Develop effective techniques for researching, organizing and delivering a speech (even on short notice or in impromptu situations).

Course Schedule: This schedule is tentative in that some discussion may carry over from one week to the next. Regardless of what takes place in class students are expected to keep up with the assignments. Also, since some presentations will require the reservation of A/V equipment, keeping the speech presentations on schedule will be a priority.

Week 1:
- Introduce the course.
- Introduce class members.
- 1984 Gallup Poll/Stanford Study
- The Winner is…(impromptu speaking exercise)
- Assign chapters 1, 2 and 3

Week 2:
- Lecture and discussion based on chapters 1,2 and 3.
- Public speaking vs. conversation.
- Dealing with butterflies (or, for some, jets).
- Critical thinking.
- Communication process.
- Speaking in a diverse world.
- Ethics.
- Listening (from both ends of the model).
- Assign 1st speech-Interpretive
- Assign chapters 4, 5, 8, 9 and 10 for class (Chapters 6 and 7, review for future reference)

Week 3:
- Lecture and discussion based on chapters 4, 5, 8, 9 and 10.
- Topic selection.
- Reading the audience.
- Organizing the speech.
- The importance of the first 30 seconds.
- Assign chapters 11-14.
- Begin work on 2nd speech-informative.

Week 4:
- Present 1st speech-interpretive.
- Formal assignment of 2nd speech-informative.
- Assign chapters 15 and 16.

Week 5:
Lecture and discussion based on chapters 11-16.
Language and delivery.
Non verbals.
Visual aids.
PowerPoint.
Informative speaking.
Persuasive speaking.
Assign 3rd speech-persuasive.
Assign chapter 17.

Week 6:
- Present 2nd speech-informative.
- Discuss chapter 17.
- Special occasion speaking.
- Assign 4th speech-After Dinner/Special Occasion.

Week 7:
- Present 3rd speech-persuasive.

Week 8:
- Present 4th speech-After Dinner/Special Occasion.
- Course wrap up.

Attendance and Participation: As previously stated, your participation in class in welcome and expected, therefore, attendance is imperative. We will view video of speakers including: Ronald Regan, Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., Steve Jobs and more in order to see examples of the techniques and issues we discuss in class. Missing class without notification will affect your grade as follows:

- Missing 1 class lowers the class participation grade to an A-
- Missing 2 classes lowers the class participation grade to a C
- Missing 3 or more classes lowers the class participation grade to an F

If you must miss a class, please speak to me so that we can discuss how it will affect your grade.

Grading criteria:

Four speeches.....................50% of grade (Speeches are judged on content, citation of sources, organization, delivery and overall impact).
*Attendance and participation.....50% of grade.

*I may ask the class to complete some end of chapter exercises as homework. These assignments would be included in the attendance and participation grade.
Academic Integrity Policy: The Doane College Academic Integrity Policy will be adhered to in this class. All projects and tests will represent your own work. Any use of other’s ideas without proper citation of sources is plagiarism and will result in a loss of all points for that particular assignment or test.