<tr>
<th>Component</th>
<th>Points</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Writing Assignments</td>
<td>250</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Class Participation</td>
<td>50</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Summary of Examinations and Assignments:

Writing assignments will be assigned throughout the duration of the course that will test and refine the student’s legal writing skills. These assignments will vary from drafting a basic legal document, to the student preparing a legal memorandum.

Course Policies:

Attendance: Student attendance at all class meetings is expected. If a student will be unable to attend a class meeting, it is the responsibility of the student to notify the instructor and perform any necessary makeup or additional assignments given to the student by the instructor. Students should obtain class notes from fellow classmates, and the absent student is responsible for all material covered on the day of the absence. Two or more unexcused absences may result in a failing grade.

Grading Scale: The grading scale is based on a nine point, A, B, C, D, F scale, as follows:

<thead>

Late Assignments: Assignments that are turned in late during the duration of the course are downgraded by one letter grade. For each additional week the assignment is late, an additional letter grade is reduced off the original score given. All assignments must be completed and handed in by July 23, 2015 to receive any credit.

Academic Integrity: The College Academic Integrity Policy will be adhered to in this class. All projects and tests will represent your own work. Any use of others’ ideas and words without proper citation of sources is plagiarism and will result in penalties to be determined by the instructor and/or the dean of graduate studies.

Format of Writings: All writing assignments to be completed outside of class should be typed, double spaced, with one-inch margins, and using a font no larger than 12 pt. in Times New Roman, Arial or Courier. If you have any questions regarding this requirement please contact your instructor. Because this course is within the Paralegal Studies department, the format of writings is critical to the discipline.
