Requirements - Environmental Studies Major

The Doane University Environmental Studies major allows for the selection of a minor or second major depending on student goals.

Complete each of the following:

BIO 101 Introduction to Biology, CHM 125 General Chemistry I OR PHS 105 Principles of Physical Science, EVS 301 Environmental Science, BIO 295 Biostatistics OR BUS 215 Statistics OR SSI 217 Applied Statistics for the Social Sciences, EVS 351 Environmental Science Research I, EVS 495 OR RES 495 Environmental Research II, EVS 496 OR RES 496 Environmental Research III.

Complete at least six credits from each of the following groups. At least one class from each group must be at the 200 level or above.

Group b. ECO 309 Environmental Economics, ENG 318 Environmental Literature, HIS 320 American Environmental History, HIS 352 American West.

Strongly Recommended: CMS 210 Public Speaking, ENG 101 Writing Seminar.

Note: Students can’t declare both an Environmental Studies major and an Environmental Science major or an Environmental Studies minor.