

LAR 101: Inquiry Seminar: Learning the Art of Inquiry The Doane Experience: Student Success Seminar

Course Description:

Liberal Arts Seminar (LAR) 101: Inquiry Seminar: Learning the Art of Inquiry The Doane Experience: Student Success Seminar

This course is designed to introduce students to academic success at Doane University. Students will be introduced to college-level writing, discussion, critical thinking, and reading. With a focus on student success, students will learn research skills, to work collaboratively, understand the importance of lifelong learning, and gain appreciation for multiple perspectives. Students will begin to engage in ongoing reflection about their educational experience.

Learning Outcomes:

The Doane Experience: Student Success Seminar: This course addresses the learning outcomes related to creating a solid academic foundation for students while preparing for a successful and enjoyable learning experience. Specifically, you will work to:

- Understand the importance of a liberal arts education
- Engage in discovery of personal strengths & needs
- Know how to navigate and use resources available; and
- Create a sense of community.

Undergraduate Core: This course intentionally addresses the learning outcomes common to all Liberal Arts Seminar 101 courses. These outcomes are directly related to the essential student learning outcomes of developing crucial intellectual skills and the habits of an intellectual life including using information wisely and communicating effectively. Specifically, you will work to:

- Engage in discovery;
- Gather & evaluate facts and assumptions;
- Support conclusions with relevant evidence; and
- Practice effective communication.
