C. Form Guidelines

Students planning to live in the suites must follow these guidelines. Inability to do so may result in loss of the suite or housing reassignment.

1. Suites may only be selected at full capacity. Students living in rooms with open spaces will be given the option of finding a roommate, buying the room out as a private, or consolidating to another space on campus.
2. Every member of the suite group must provide their student ID number, their name, and any necessary signatures on page 2 of this form.
3. Abuse and/or misuse of lottery points may result in an individual or group forfeiting their lottery points and/or other judicial action. This includes fraudulent claims of honors or private room bonuses, double dipping, and any other attempt to circumvent fair use of lottery points.
4. In order to select housing, the spokesperson must attend the Suites selection.
5. If Stop Day falls on the day of selection for Hansen, the selection meeting will not be moved. Spokespersons will still be expected to attend.
6. Groups interested in gender neutral housing must complete a gender neutral registration form in addition to this one.

D. Resident Eligibility and Responsibilities

1. Students should pre-register for classes and may not have any business holds in order to be eligible for housing selection.
2. Students must be approved through the Hansen application process.
3. Lottery point disputes submitted by Friday, March 18 are guaranteed resolution. Late disputes may not be resolved in time for housing selection.
4. By signing your name to this housing form, you agree to the terms outlined in the 2016.2017 Housing Contract, available in full at www.doane.edu/residence-life/contract.
5. By signing your name to this housing form, you agree to adhere to the student code of conduct and student handbook, available in full at http://www.doane.edu/students/information/handbook/crete.
6. Individuals planning to buy out a private must sign the private room agreement section of this form, found in box I on page 2.
7. Students who have been approved to live off campus Fall 2016 may be asked to forfeit their lottery points if they are included on this form. Students who participate in housing selection forfeit their eligibility to apply for off campus status for Fall 2016.

Revised 3.04.16
Room Assignments

By signing your name to a room assignment, you agree to adhere to the conditions outlined on this form, in the student handbook, the student conduct code, and the 2016.2017 housing contract, copies of which are available on the Doane website. You also agree to retract any off campus application you may have already submitted. Any individual found spending their lottery points on more than one form will forfeit their points and face possible judicial consequences.
